

Quonset Type Storage Structure to House Public Works Material

Building Now Under Construction on East Strand Climaxes Busy Season

Making Progress
Sewage Disposal Plant Expected to be Done in Week's Time

Completion of a new quonset type storage structure on East Strand with an adjacent outside storage area will climax one of the busiest programs of the local public works department in several years, a survey of projects Friday revealed.

Projects of the department this summer and spring ranged from the reconstruction of North Front street to the repaving of several streets in the residential areas and on sections of Broadway.

Ernest A. Stauding, superintendent of public works, who has been in charge of the projects, revealed today that work completed to date has required the use of 6,356 tons of asphaltic concrete, 8,775 tons of crushed stone and 91,733 gallons of liquid asphalt.

The rebuilding of North Front street represents the sturdiest type of street construction used locally. The street was given two courses in what is known as the penetration method before the final courses of asphaltic concrete, a type of material which has been used on Broadway and other streets built recently.

The penetration method without the use of asphaltic concrete was used in the repaving of streets in outlying areas of the city, where travel is not heavy, but the method of construction provides a road that will last for many years.

The quonset type storage building now under construction is 100 by 100 square feet and will house some of the heavy equipment used by the department. Other equipment and implements will be stored in the outside area near the building in a space of about 20,000 square feet. It will be enclosed in a cyclone type fence.

Such materials as calcium chloride and cement, which the city generally buys by the carload will be stored in the building. It is being constructed by the Raymond Conway Construction Company.

The sewage disposal plant in the same sector is expected to be completed in about a week, and it will be in operation soon. The buildings were constructed some time ago were left inactive during the war years because of the lack of equipment.

The city also now has a gas chamber for the execution of animals at the Wilbur avenue incinerator, which was described recently by an inspector for the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, as the best type he has seen in the state.

Installation of new light poles and the elimination of overhead electric lines is still to be completed on North Front street, but this work will get under way as the materials are available. Poles supporting the electric lines, some of which are now beyond curb lines in the street, will be removed as soon as the utility companies are ready to switch to the recently installed underground systems.

Two courses of asphaltic concrete over the brick pavement were used in the repaving of Broadway from Foxhill avenue to Chestnut street and for several blocks on the hill leading from McEntee street to Ferry street.

East Union street was finished this week with a similar pavement and before that the same material was used in Elmendorf street for its full length and Main street from Washington avenue to Grandview avenue.

Shock Victim

Kerhonkson Man Takes Hold of Guy Wire Attached to Pole

Alfred Perro, 50, of Kerhonkson, who suffered shock and burns Thursday morning while working near Phoenicia, was reported improved and was discharged from the Kingston Hospital today.

Perro, a lineman engaged on telephone work, took hold of a guy wire attached to a pole and suffered a severe shock.

State Trooper Ray Dunn, who made an investigation, reported the man was employed by a Kerhonkson contractor who was engaged in setting telephone poles in the area. When Perro took hold of the guy wire he was standing on wet ground and Trooper Dunn reported that there was apparently a leak from a power line which passed through Perro's body. He was brought to the Kingston Hospital by ambulance after first aid treatment by Dr. Charles Quinn of Phoenicia.

Netherlands Say U.N. Efforts Fail

Demand Made for Troops in Indonesia or Hands Off Policy

Lake Success, Aug. 23 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council, in its efforts to halt hostilities in Indonesia, appeared headed for trouble today in its efforts to reach a decision on the problem.

Dr. Eelco N. Van Kleffens, the Netherlands representative, delivered a virtual ultimatum to the council yesterday, demanding that the council either "send troops" to Indonesia to police its cease-fire order, or keep hands off and let the Dutch handle the situation.

He said that killing had increased in Indonesia since the cease-fire order and implied that further intervention would intensify the conflict.

On the basis of statements made by the various delegates at two sessions yesterday it appeared the council might find it difficult to work out an acceptable solution of the difficulty.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko said he was unable to accept proposals which had been submitted by Australia, the United States and China. These proposals would call for commissions either of three members or of the council in Batavia to supervise the U.N. cease-fire order.

Meanwhile, the council seemed no nearer a solution of the Anglo-Egyptian case, in which Egypt is demanding the withdrawal of British troops from Egyptian soil and administration of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

From the crowded similar demonstration on the basis of information reports that 30-odd Egyptian Left Wing party leaders had arrived in New York for the climax of the Egyptian case here, the security force was understood to have decided on tightening up its council chamber guard.

Girl, Boyfriend Are Held
Detroit, Aug. 23 (AP)—A 20-year-old girl who "needed some excitement" and the youth whom police said she permitted to take $294 in a "holdup" of the cleaning establishment where she worked were held on larceny charges today.

Assistant Prosecutor Arnold Monash identified the pair as Gloria Brannack and Samuel J. Chaffee, 24. He said Gloria told him they made arrangements over the telephone for the August 11 robbery, during which she let Chaffee hit her over the head to "knock me unconscious," and escape with the money in the cash register. Later, Monash said she reported, the young bandit gave her $50 of the loot.

Sharpest Fighting
Batavia, Java, Aug. 23 (AP)—A Netherlands army communiqué said that Dutch-Indonesian fighting today was the sharpest since a mutual cease-fire order became effective August 4. The Dutch—calling the republican cease-fire order a "sham"—said Indonesian forces were active on almost every front in Java and Sumatra and that Dutch casualties for the day reached eight killed and 30 wounded.

Announces Film Agreement
Paris, Aug. 23 (AP)—The French film trade weekly Le Film Français said today an agreement had been concluded soon regarding the exchange of films between France and Great Britain. Following the 75 per cent tax on imported films decreed by the British government, the French customs had blocked all films and film products imported from Britain during the last eight days.

Catskill Disorders Are Reported Exaggerated

Reports of outbreaks of disorder at the convention of state volunteer firemen at Catskill this week, were believed to have been generally distorted and exaggerated, the Catskill police reported today.

The convention, which ended with a dance last night in the armory, the police said, had caused no more official trouble than the investigation of the theft of a lawn chair from a property in the village.

Reports at the outset of the four-day convention indicated that some of the visiting firemen had carried their gaiety to extremes among themselves, but whatever disorder grew of their pranks, was apparently not big enough to warrant police attention.

Some trouble was expected before the day of the parade because of the banning of Clayton's Military Band of Ellenville from participation in the line of march, but this, it was learned today did not materialize.

The band was not invited by the parade committee and Ellenville's two fire companies did not parade because they were not certified.

John A. Cole, secretary of the Musicians' Protective Union, Local 215, said today.

More than 2,500 firemen from 42 departments paraded yesterday, according to the Associated Press, but 35 Nassau county companies were absent. The Nassau delegation stayed away after an argument over the water pressure supplied for a pumping competition.

The Nassau men, who withdrew from the pumping competition, challenged Suffolk teams to meet them in such a contest on their home ground Labor Day.

Walter Worthington, chairman of the Suffolk County Racing Team Association, said the Riverhead team which he heads would accept "any challenge from any Nassau county team on a neutral track," but would not take part in a tournament at Ellenville. Roger Renner, captain of a Bayport team, held out for "neutral officials" in a contest held under state association regulations.

Rensselaer Man Jumps From Boat Near Albany Dock

Norman C. Van Wormer Reportedly Leaped Into Hudson on Dollar Wager

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP)—Reportedly on a $1 wager, a man identified as Norman C. Van Wormer, Rensselaer, jumped 50 feet today from the crowded top deck of the Hudson River Day Line steamer Robert Fulton near its Albany dock.

The man struck out for the Rensselaer shore but was overtaken by six crew members who had put out in a lifeboat.

The crewmen reached the swimmer 50 feet off the Rensselaer shore and returned him to the ship on orders of Capt. George Rittmeyer of the Fulton.

The New York-bound ship, carrying a large number of excursionists, the majority on route to Kingston Point, left its Albany pier on schedule and had just cleared Dunn Memorial Bridge, a few hundred yards distant, when the man jumped.

Persons along the Albany bank of the Hudson river said they heard cries from women as the man hit the water and began swimming.

Word was flashed to the bridge and the captain ordered the steamer stopped.

Rensselaer police reached the river bank a few moments after the rescue. They said they took no action because the man was returned to the ship.

Rensselaer police said Van Wormer is an employee of General Aniline Company in that city. He apparently was not injured in the plunge.

Bear Tracks In Ponckhockie
Found in the Yard of Matthews Home at 201 East Union

Reports a week ago that a bear had been seen in Hasbrouck Park seemed to have some foundation today, in a report from Mrs. Robert Matthews, 201 East Union street, that tracks resembling those of a bear were discovered in the yard of her home.

The local police were notified by morning of the tracks, and they reported that Mrs. Matthews found garbage cans on the property upset and scattered.

Officers Edward Leonard and George Bowers, who investigated, said that Lester Hunt of the gas station at the foot of Hasbrouck avenue, who had done considerable bear hunting, believed that the tracks in the yard of the Matthews home, were bear tracks.

Hunt estimated that the type track on the property indicated that they could have been made by a small bear. It would be one, he said weighing from 130 to 150 pounds, the police reported.

Dummy's 'Rescue' a Tieup
New York, Aug. 23 (AP)—The "rescue" of a dummy hanging from a flagpole atop a six-story school building on the fringe of the theatrical district attracted a sidewalk audience of several thousand persons and snarled traffic early today. A police emergency squad played its powerful beams on the swaying dummy, which at first appeared to be a human body. It took police a half hour to work their way to the roof of the school, closed for the summer, and lower the dummy. Franksters had put a woman's coat and jacket, a green velvet lady's cape and a coachman's coat over a wire hanger fixed to the halyard.

Rep. Gifford Dies
Cottuit, Mass., Aug. 23 (AP)—U. S. Rep. Charles L. Gifford, 76, died early today at his home. The Republican had been a member of Congress since 1921.

Labor Report Shows 125,000 Are on Strike

Washington, Aug. 23 (AP)—The Labor Department said today its preliminary reports indicated that about 125,000 workers were involved in 200 strikes on Wednesday—the day before many provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act went into effect, including the ban on the closed shop.

The figure, a Labor Department official told a reporter, included virtually every work stoppage in the country—several involving only five or six workers.

The Labor Department will know Monday, this official said, how many strikes were settled before midnight Wednesday when the additional sections of the new labor law became operative.

Greek Coalition Cabinet Falls

Resignations of Three Ministers Precipitate Government's Fall

Athens, Aug. 23 (AP)—The coalition cabinet headed by Demetrios Maximos, backed by $300,000,000 in American aid but rent by internal dissension, fell today.

The resignation of three ministers who insisted on changes in the cabinet precipitated the government's fall. Foreign Minister Constantinos Tsaldaris, just back from Washington conferences, opposed the resulting, contending it "would render no service whatever to the country."

Informed quarters said Maximos was drafting his cabinet's resignation for presentation to King Paul this afternoon.

Maximos, a leader in the Popular party, formed the coalition cabinet last January, with members from seven of the eight parties represented in Parliament. The Left Wing EAM parties were not represented.

The crisis arose because of a disagreement over reconstitution of the cabinet. Three former premier—who were members of the cabinet—Sophocles Venizelos, George Papandreou and Panagiotis Kanellopoulos—insisted on changes. Foreign Minister Constantinos Tsaldaris, also a former premier, objected.

Venizelos, Papandreou and Kanellopoulos then resigned.

Venizelos, head of the Venizelos Liberal party, was vice premier and minister of war. Kanellopoulos, a National Unionist, was minister of navy. Papandreou, a Social Democrat, had served as minister of interior.

Guerrilla warfare continued meanwhile, and Stephanos Kalabalkis, until recently a leader of a Right Wing band in the Volos area, was reported arrested yesterday in Athens.

Pleads Innocent Of Stealing Watch

Tannersville Man Is Accused of Taking Farrel's Timepiece

Irving Young, 27, of Tannersville, who was arrested Friday on a charge of grand larceny, first degree, pleaded innocent when arraigned before Special City Judge Francis Martocci today. Hearing was set for Monday when Young, entered the plea and asked for an attorney.

The arrest of Young, according to the police, followed an investigation of the theft of a watch, reported stolen from a room occupied by Alfred Farrel, 6 Thomas street.

The theft was reported July 26, the police said, and the investigation conducted since that time led to the arrest of Young yesterday at Catskill by local Detectives Wesley Cramer and Clarence Brophy who executed a warrant against Young, the police said, has a record. He was finger-printed, photographed before he was taken to the county jail to await arraignment this morning.

Propose Plebiscite
Seoul, Aug. 23 (AP)—The United States today proposed an international survey of public opinion in Korea as a means of breaking the American-Russian deadlock on the type of government desired by the people of this occupied nation. Maj. Gen. Albert E. Brown, Chief of the United States delegation to the Korean Joint Commission, said the Soviets have not replied to Secretary of State Marshall's August 8 proposal for a joint report on the commission's deadlocked efforts.

Bar Dairien Shipping
Shanghai, Aug. 23 (AP)—The Chinese government's order banning foreign shipping to and from the Soviet-controlled port of Dairien was regarded in some quarters today as a means of foreshadowing the denotation of Russian ships entering other Chinese ports. If such becomes the case, the order—which the government is powerless to enforce, directly—would not be as meaningless as it appears.

Announce Arrests
Jerusalem, Aug. 23 (AP)—Police announced today that a "number of persons" had been arrested in connection with the abduction and murder of a British sergeant within the hemisphere.

The United States and virtually all other American nations favor joint employment of force against any attack upon any American country, whether from another American country or from outside the hemisphere. Argentina would limit joint action in the case of American aggression to consultation. By a conference rule, a two-thirds vote is necessary for adoption of any treaty proposal.

Mary C. Perpetua,
Joseph J. Bruno
Married in Glasco

Miss Mary C. Perpetua, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perpetua of Glasco, was united in marriage to Joseph J. Bruno, son of Mrs. James Bruno of Glasco, Sunday, August 10, at 1 p. m., at St. Joseph's Church, Glasco. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph E. Rivoli, pastor.

Miss Anne Riccardi was organist and Charles Riccardi was soloist. Selections offered included "Ave Maria," "O Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly." The altar was decorated with lighted candles and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown on train made with sweetheart neckline, fitted with long sleeves and lace ruffle. She wore a long veil with a tulle of orange blossoms and she carried a white orchid with staphylea in heart-shaped bouquet.

Miss Theresa De Pasquale, as maid of honor, wore a peacock-blue taffeta gown and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of American roses. She also wore a large picture hat to match her gown.

Bridesmaids were Mary Castello, Thelma Greco and Virginia Alolio, all of Glasco. They wore fuschia-colored gowns of taffeta and hoop skirt and carried a heart-shaped design of roses. They also wore large picture hats to match their gowns.

Nancy Carol Misasi, cousin of the groom, as flower girl, wore a white satin gown with hoop skirt and a crown of flowers in her hair to match her bouquet of pink roses which were made in a heart-shaped design.

Thomas A. Greco of Glasco was best man. Ushers were Charles Misasi, Jr., Glasco; Fred Giordano, Cementon; and Salvatore DePasquale, Glasco. John Winnicki, Jr. of Cementon, a cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

A reception for 350 guests was held at the Mt. Marion Inn. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Bruno left for wedding trip to Chicago, Ill. For traveling she chose a blue girdle suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will make their home in Glasco.

The bride attended Saugerties schools. Mr. Bruno was graduated from Saugerties High School. He served three years in the army.

At Music Center

ROBERT WOLFERSTEIG

Robert Wolfersteig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wolfersteig of Connelly, has been attending the Deerwood Adirondack Music Center on Upper Saranac Lake for eight weeks this summer. He majored in organ this summer and presented a recital at the Methodist Church, Saranac Lake. A student at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, he played "Celli" with the Adirondack Symphony Orchestra conducted by Richard Karp, director of the Pittsburgh Opera Company, in other years at the camp. This summer he is participating in the choir. Deerwood was established in 1943 by Sherwood Kuins, choral director of the Cincinnati May Festival. (Pennington Studio).

Sixth Birthday Party

Darrell Myers, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Myers of "Broadway," Port Ewen, was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party held at the home of his parents on Wednesday. The table decorations were in blue and white, with a large birthday cake in the middle. Attending were Johnny Bulloy, Cloon Burke, Johnny Taylor, Donald Atkins, Joe Hoffman, Walter Scharp, Lennie Kaschel, Dickie Wenzel, Myron Lane, Jerry and Russell Fridgen and Vincent Beaver. The youngsters enjoyed games and refreshments. Assisting Mrs. Myers were Mrs. Joseph Hoffman and Mrs. Louis Myers.

Personal Notes

The Misses Lina and Sophie Schmidtkron, 211 Washington avenue, have returned home after spending a few days at Wildmere, Lake, Minnewaska.

Rug Made of Scraps

Something a bread-and-butter note is a hard thing to write. You may find yourself floundering through a first sentence that is too formal such as, "I wish to express my sincere gratitude for the hospitality."

No good! Be natural. State clearly and affectionately, as you did in person before leaving your hostess, "I don't know when I have enjoyed a visit as much as last week-end with you and your charming family."

The closing paragraph might be a wish to be remembered to the other members of the family and the closing itself is "Gratefully yours."

The note should be sent promptly after spending a night or longer in your hostess' home. It is not obligatory but often a nice gesture to write an out-of-town hostess after lunching or dining with her. The telephone takes care of local thank-yous.

Our Reader Service booklet No. 27 on letter-writing gives a sample bread-and-butter note on page 30. The book also includes examples and rules for writing invitations, letters of sympathy and congratulations and business correspondence.

Reverse Treatments

The sting of a bee is aching while the sting of a wasp is alkaline; hence, use alkaline treatment on the bee sting, and acid on the sting of a wasp.

Thrifty! Easy! Scraps can be used for the flower medallions. Crochet them separately, join them and add a plain strip. Presto—a rug!

Gay flower-medallion rug, very handy, scatter-rug size, 25 x 34 in. Pattern 7402 has directions.

TITLES STILL REQUIRED

Titles still are exacted under many circumstances, as for example as described in the following letter: "What should I do about calling old friends by first names in business situations? I've known these men all my life and now am facing them in business. To say 'Mr. Brown,' 'Mr. Jones' and 'Mr. Green' when they have all been 'Tom,' 'Dick' and 'Harry' to me for years seems a bit absurd. And yet, the dignified surroundings of our business (law offices) seems to preclude the use of first names except behind closed doors."

In the office you always should speak of them as "Mr. Brown," "Mr. Jones" and "Mr. Green" when talking about them except when speaking to others who also call them "Tom," "Dick" and "Harry." When speaking either to them or about them before clients or within their hearing—also say "Mr." But when in the office by yourselves, you naturally call them what you always have, even in the hearing of the office staff.

Dear Mrs. Post: On what side of the plate should the napkin be placed? We usually have the first course at the places beforehand, so naturally the napkins cannot be on the plates. But I thought it should be the left side and now a neighbor says she always sets her table with them on the right. She always does everything very nicely, which now makes me wonder if left is wrong.

Answer: Other than putting it on the plate (when possible), there is no fixed rule for either of the two sides further than the one which has most space. The fact that usually there are more implements on the right, as well as glasses, means that your choice is the better one.

Simple Wedding

Dear Mrs. Post: When you speak of a simple wedding, do you mean an informal one?

Answer: The marriage service is a church ceremony and, therefore, cannot be informal ever. By a simple wedding I mean simple preparations in the way of decorations, clothes and collation. It also usually means that the guests are limited to relatives and intimate friends.

So many requests have been made for details in setting a table for formal dinner, that I have written a leaflet entitled, "Table Setting." To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Ulster 4-H Girls
Win 3 Ribbons in District Review

Ulster County 4-H girls paced a field of 45 participants in the New York State Eastern District 4-H Dress Review held at New York city yesterday, garnering three of the seven blue ribbon awards presented to the contestants, officials of the county 4-H Club office announced this morning.

The blue ribbon winners, voted as excellent in their respective classes, were Jeanne Myer, Saugerties, Jane Bower, Hurley, and Jean Rosa, also of Hurley. They will compete in the State Dress Review which will be held at the college of home economics, Cornell University, Ithaca, on August 27.

Miss Myer modeled a Navy wool bolero suit with red accessories, in the wool dress, suit or ensemble class. A two-piece best dress black linen crash skirt, with a white eyelet blouse and small black bow won the second award for Miss Bower. Jean Rosa, wearing a blue, spun rayon afternoon dress with scalloped neckline and sleeves, drew the blue ribbon prize nod from the judges' stand.

Merit awards were presented Miss Delcie Konluk, Saugerties, who wore a white print school dress trimmed with green; Miss Mary Konluk, Saugerties, who scored with a green print dress with white eyelet inset and removable white peplum; Miss Elizabeth Wells, Modena, wearing a forest green jersey dress with keyhole neck; Miss Jeanne Wells, Modena, who fashioned a blue, velvet-topped evening gown with a plaid taffeta skirt; and Miss Rosalyn DeWitt, Modena, whose blue school dress decorated with red apple prints scored a hit.

An honorable mention award went to Lillian LeWare, Hurley, for a blue, maroon-striped sport dress.

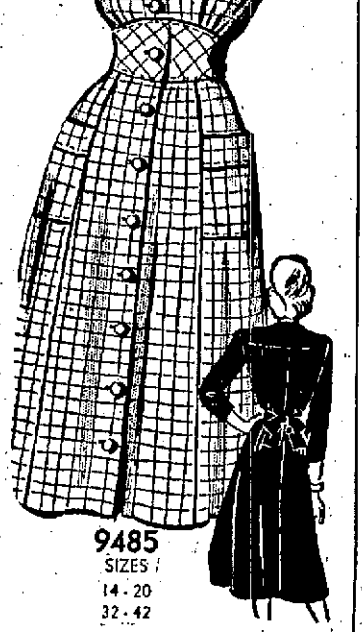

All the dresses were made by the girls themselves, who worked under the supervision of their local 4-H Club leaders.

The County 4-H Club office said this morning that during the past year 1500 girls took part in various dress reviews throughout the state, but only 200 were eligible to compete in the district reviews.

Between 50 and 60 girls who will represent 52 counties, will participate in the state review to be held at Cornell University. The Ulster County 4-H Club is proud to have three of its girls selected as eligible contestants for this review, and expresses its appreciation to the various local leaders for having taught the skills of dressmaking to the girl members.

Palestine Committee
Says 230,000 Want Homes

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 23 (AP)—The United Nations special committee on Palestine says that "at least a component in the problem" of that country is a "mass urge" to settle there upon the part of 230,000 Jewish displaced persons in Europe.

U.N.S.C.O.P. adopted a subcommittee report yesterday which contained this conclusion: "The 10-member subcommittee, recently visited Jewish D.P. camps in Germany and Austria. In approving the report, the full committee turned down arguments of Arab spokesmen here that the D.P. problem had nothing to do with the Palestine problem."

The subcommittee said that it privately interviewed 100 Jewish D.P.'s picked at random and that "the overwhelming majority" refused, for fear of anti-Semitism, to be sent back home and would "not consider resettlement in any country except Palestine."

The subsidiary group quoted the refugees as saying they "would rather wait indefinitely until the opportunity to go to Palestine came or attempt illegal passage," rather than live elsewhere.

Miss Truman Confident

Hollywood, Aug. 23 (AP)—Margaret Truman, the President's 23-year-old daughter, expressed confidence as she prepared to make her concert debut tonight as soprano soloist before at least 15,000 persons in Hollywood Bowl. "I actually think this performance is going to be harder on my family and friends than on me," said the young, blonde singer. She expressed disappointment that the President and Mrs. Truman will be unable to be in the audience. The concert will not be broadcast.

WAR BABIES IN SCHOOL

With the opening of the country's schools only a few weeks away, educational leaders in many parts of the country are faced with a grave shortage of primary teachers. This is not entirely a reflection of the general teacher problem. It is partly a pupil problem.

War marriages resulted in a higher birth rate. These babies have grown up, as babies will, to the point where thousands of them this September will be ready for kindergarten, and the first grade. Unfortunately the teaching profession did not attract a like increase of candidates.

The result is that there are going to be many crowded school rooms in primary departments. In cities this is a locality emergency. In those sections where there are small homes, the situation will be grave. In areas where childless apartment houses abound or in sections of larger homes where presumably older families reside, the lower grades will be untaxed.

These babies who came into the world at a time of crisis apparently are to find that the results of that war are to accompany them for many years. The crowded kindergartens they will encounter on their first day of school become a symbol of the price paid for a free country. Happily, for a few years anyway, it won't bother them. But it will harass a good many school executives, and overwork many primary teachers.

CAPITALIST VENTURE

Captain Bill Odom, in an interview in Washington after his return from his 73-hour world-girdling flight, said that he did not believe that the Russians had a plane which could be used in duplicating his performance. He also remarked that they don't have a Milton Reynolds, either.

He had something there. In a totalitarian regime, everybody's time and energy are used to the fullest extent in producing little more than the essentials of life. The Russians might, in time, produce such a plane as the one used by Odom, but they are making every effort not to produce an industrialist like Reynolds who can afford to finance a world flight, not only once, but three times.

The two flights previously sponsored and another projected for the future are, of course, advertising on a large scale. They are also adventures which test the capacity of the plane and the ability of the pilot, besides providing other valuable information, at enormous cost to a private individual. This sort of magnificent gesture is impossible to a Russian citizen.

THE WORST ISM

What ism is worse than Communism or Fascism? Somnambulism, says Astronomer Harlow Shapley of Harvard, who defines it as "seeming to be awake but actually not."

If this is the test, the world has a lot of somnambulists. Anyone who does not know the dangers presented by the atomic bomb and the necessity of doing something about them, is a somnambulist. Anyone who thinks that because he does not like some current economic developments, they can be cured by simply going back to the good old days, is a somnambulist.

Of course anyone whose party has just lost an election, thinks that the other party is full of somnambulists.

A PEACE DEPARTMENT

R. M. Davis, a Morgantown, W. Va., coal operator, wants to see street-level straight-from-the-shoulder diplomacy developed, and a Peace Department to operate along with the War Department in the United States cabinet. Since 1942 he has crusaded for peace through speeches, books he has written, radio addresses, scholarships in international relations in two American colleges and prizes for high school peace essays.

Mr. Davis believes American diplomats should be able to speak the language of the country where they serve in order that they may pick up the feelings of the average citi-

'These Days'

By George E. Sokolsky

WHO'S TELLING WHOM?

These are not the right kind of days for a row, certainly not under these New England maples where life seems eternally just right. Up here in Sandisfield, world confusions have in no manner obtruded themselves upon my neighbors, who are mightily puzzled that no matter how much stone they pull out of the ground, more stone appears after each frost.

Nevertheless, I cannot avoid wondering how the other half lives, so I read "The Daily Worker." That keeps me informed about the doings of Henry Wallace and Vito Marcantonio and why the United States isn't any good. I can't help thinking as I sit up here, near the Blueberry Trail where the French and Indian War was fought and not far from the road that General Knox cut through the forest to bring the artillery from Fort Ticonderoga to Boston, in the Revolutionary War, that if I thought as badly of this country as these who write for "The Daily Worker" do, I would get me a one-way ticket to some other place.

Be that as it may, I find in the sheet before me an article by David Platt on Jimmy Cagney whom I, like millions of other Americans, have enjoyed in the movies. It seems that Cagney is producing a movie based on Saroyan's "The Time of Your Life." Why Cagney does this is his business, but Platt seems to feel that Cagney is spoiling Saroyan, which must be hard to do.

Anyhow, according to Platt, at a recent P.C.A. meeting in Los Angeles, Paul Draper, who dances fancifully, sometimes even to the accompaniment of a harmonica, notified the reds and pinkos there assembled that Cagney is a bad boy because he is distorting Saroyan. Thus, Draper was ordered to substitute Stalin for Hitler in a line on account of Hitler being dead and they are two of a kind, and there is no use talking about a ghost: Draper danced an objection and somebody proposed that Molotov's name be used.

But, this also according to Platt, somebody called Sidney Bernstein, who belongs to an English outfit run by J. Arthur Rank, told Draper that his organization would refuse to handle a film which had a line in it offensive to the Soviet Union. He said further that if "The Time of Your Life" was released with either the name of Stalin or Molotov in it, it would do practically no business anywhere in Europe.

In other words, Draper makes the point which Platt repeats and which I pass along as Platt's, that Bernstein undertook to veto an American film on behalf of an English outfit for political reasons. Jimmy Cagney, who seems in the films to be a tough baby, didn't slap down Draper, Bernstein, et al, because business is business and maybe this Bernstein really had the right to veto what was in the film business. So, anyhow, they called Hitler, Stalin and Molotov and stuck in the name Killy, an anonymous guy, who can't veto anything.

But, says Platt, that isn't all. Cagney, being shrewd, two-timed Draper, Bernstein and even Platt and made two versions, one for this country using Killy and the other for Europe using Killy. So the Europeans will wonder who is this Killy and they will reach the conclusion that he must be a big shot, running for Vice-President like Harold Stassen.

Platt wants "a contemporary reactionary or fascist." Now, who do you think that contemporary reactionary or fascist is? Maybe they would say Rankin, because when the Communies can't think of anyone else to knock down, they call whomever they dislike Rankin, which has become a trademark with them. Or maybe they would say Harry Truman, because I read another place in which they are demanding that the Democrats should not run him for President but instead should take on Henry Wallace, who is more pleasing to say.

Anyhow, it is all right to make fun of any American—but not Molotov. Soon we shall have a censorship in Hollywood to make sure that nobody hurts the feelings of the 40 or 50 members of UN. Only American feelings are to be hurt. (Copyright 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

RHEUMATIC FEVER

So many useful men and women now die of heart disease that health organizations, especially heart and rheumatism organizations, are warning the public generally of the dangers of rheumatic fever. It is rheumatic fever occurring during childhood that causes so many deaths at and approaching middle age when men and women are in their prime.

So, just as the campaign against tuberculosis has put tuberculosis from first place well down on the list of causes of death, so it is hoped that this warning against rheumatic fever in childhood may finally remove heart disease from first place as a cause of death. While rheumatic fever is considered the greatest enemy of childhood, it occurs very often between ages of 5 to 25.

An editorial in the "Canadian Medical Association Journal" speaks of an excellent booklet published by the American Council on Rheumatic Fever of the American Heart Association. The booklet points out that the main difficulty in controlling and preventing rheumatic fever is because it comes on so quickly and with symptoms common to other diseases in children that parents and sometimes the physician are slow in recognizing it.

The patient feels ill and tired from one to three days, may have pains in the joints with sore throat and perhaps a fever. Then suddenly there are chills, rise in temperature with rapid heart beat, and rapid breathing, tongue coated, no appetite, marked thirst. As temperature rises pain occurs in the joints—knee, elbow, shoulder, wrist. Joints swell and skin over joints is red and hot.

The booklet points out that parents should not wait until rheumatic fever is well advanced—painful swollen joints—before calling their physician because tiredness and sore throat may be early signs of rheumatic fever as they are of other diseases in childhood.

I have spoken before of this handy booklet because it should be the means of saving lives when said lives may give much to the world. It is called "Rheumatic Fever, Childhood's Greatest Enemy," by Herbert Yarnard, Bulletin No. 126 issued by Public Affairs Committee, Inc., 22 East 38th St., New York, N. Y. Price 10 cents.

zens of foreign countries, and transmit those attitudes accurately to the American people. His idea of a peace department got as far as having a bill for it introduced in the House. It did not come to a vote before the adjournment of the 80th Congress.

But Mr. Davis is not discouraged. A good many Americans, especially those whose young men died on foreign battlefields, will agree with what he said recently to President Truman: "We have had two world wars in 25 years. There is something wrong with the set-up. We must do something to correct it."

NEW PALTZ

New Paltz, Aug. 22—Resignation of Edward Curtis as custodian of school buildings was accepted by the New Paltz Board of Education at a meeting held Tuesday night. The temporary appointments of Ernest Ahlberg and Otto B. Peterson, assistant, were made to fill the vacancy. A civil service examination will be held at a future date for the position. The board announced, Frank Burger, new principal, presented the agenda for the school year which was approved in part by the trustees. School will open the day after Labor Day, September 2. The high school faculty for the coming year is made up of all new teachers with the exception of Mrs. Gertrude McKenna who taught last year.

W. O. T. U. Meeting
The annual picnic meeting of the W. O. T. U. was held Wednesday at the home of Miss Edith Adkins. Mrs. Emma Carpenter, county president, was guest and she talked on the world's convention held at Asbury Park recently.

In her talk Mrs. Carpenter said that the convention was conducted by Mrs. Ella Booze, world's president for the past 16 years. She is 88 years of age. Mrs. Booze at the convention, handed over the gavel to Mrs. J. Forrestal Paton of Scotland, new president.

Mrs. Paton said, the speaker continued, that 25 countries were represented at the convention and 2,000 delegates and friends were in attendance.

Following the talk, the secretary was authorized to cast a unanimous ballot to elect all present officers for the new year.

Miss Lois Betz gave the invitation to meet at her home in September. A box lunch was enjoyed at noon.

Those attending were Mrs. Raymond Hasbrouck, president; Mrs. Ida Stephens, Mrs. Arthur Ingardham, Miss Lois Betz, Mrs. Howard Van Keuren, Miss Bertha Metcalf, Mrs. Annie Becker, Mrs. Alice Martin, Mrs. E. Van Vliet, Mrs. Webb Kniffen, and two guests, Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Charity Van Auker.

On being searched after being arrested for shoplifting, a Tokyo thief was found to be carrying a bottle of whiskey, purse full of butter, two forks, cuff-links, tin of beef, dictionary, powder compact, four pencils and pocket-knives, in a stolen suitcase.

First Native Governor
President Truman signed the elective governor bill a year and 10 days after he gave Puerto Rico its first native governor—Rafael C. Yrigoin, who succeeded Rexford Tugwell.

Pinero, who had been the island's resident commissioner in Washington, pledged himself in his inaugural speech to be the first governor appointed by the President. To this end he has devoted much of his efforts in the short time he has been governor.

Puerto Rico's political leadership is agreed that the new reform will not solve the island's social and economic problems. Some leaders have been opposed to the measure on the ground that "it is only a slice of bread when Puerto Rico has been asking for a loaf."

Independence or Statehood
This is because the island has requested the President and Congress to authorize a plebiscite through which Puerto Ricans can choose by themselves whether they are going to become a state of the union or an independent republic.

The present resident commissioner in Washington, Dr. A. Fortson-Isom, who steered the elective governor bill through Congress, believes that under the new act Puerto Rico will have an opportunity to "further prove its ability for self-government."

LEGION BOARD TRICKED
When a Communist trick can be put over on the alert, staunchly American executive board of the California Department, American Legion, that's news.

It happened August 10 when a resolution was slipped past that state Legion body which might have been lifted right out of any current Communist front publication.

The resolution sounded good enough in its opening paragraph, condemning both Communism and Fascism. But it went right on to adopt the line the Red fronts recently have adopted of picturing Fascism as a greater threat to this country than Communism.

There are about 4,950,000 members of Communist fronts in this country, but if there is an organization aiming at replacing this form of government and this economic system with a Fascist system I have not discovered it. Communists and their friends, however, use "Fascist" as a smear word.

The framer of framers of the resolution named only one little inconspicuous weekly news letter in the Communist front, listed as Fascist five publications which have made it their primary business to fight Communism. No mention was made of the Daily Worker, the New Masses or Political Affairs, all official Communist organs.

Nothing was said about Henry Wallace's New Republic or Leon Birkhead's defamatory sheet, Friends of Democracy's Battle, or the various publications issued or aided by the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith, the giant softener-upper for Marxism.

Exonerated:
On the other hand, some of the "Fascist" papers and their publishers, condemned in the resolution as "subversive" have been recently exonerated by a federal court after the Anti-Defamation League and its host of rich, influential friends, together with the full power of the New Deal and its Attorney General, tried for nearly four years to connect the accused with the enemy—the Nazi enemy that is.

In fact, the federal judge who threw the case—the so-called Sedition trial—out of court, limited the federal prosecution for using the court to persecute and punish the accused, and said that, if after so much effort, there still was no evidence on which to base a conviction it would be "a travesty on justice" to hold the defendants under indictment any longer.

If these men are subversive all Americans would like them convicted, but we would like something done about the hum-dreds of thousands of Communists. But it was probably not the real intention of the Legion board, starting out to condemn Communism, to mention only one Communist publication while attacking five anti-Communist papers.

I believe most of the members of the California Legion board have a fair understanding of the real nature of the "Sedition Trial" but a great many patriotic Americans have not. It is time that all mentally adult citizens get to the bottom of it.

Whatever the record of the defendants—and, as I say, the court found nothing subversive in their records—the whole show was cooked up by the Red radicals, the lunatic fringe, who had the ear of the President and the full use of his Attorney General's office.

Some Legionnaires Surprised
Their aims—conviction or no conviction—were to create a great spectacle, frightening away all opposition to our going into the war beside Soviet Russia, and discrediting and defaming the more astute spokesmen of the New Deal socialism. The Communists loved the show because their propaganda organs, playing up the attacks the accused had made on certain Communist organizations and individuals which happened to be Jewish, to alarm the whole Jewish community and try to frighten all Jews into Communism.

They wanted (and still want) all Jews to believe that all Americans who oppose Communism also oppose all Jews. In their appeal to the Jews, the Communist Party hoped the trial would so condition American thinking as to permit passage of a law that would make anti-Semitism (or their definition of it) a crime, thereby preventing any criticism or exposure of a minority group, however subversive. Behind such a law Communist agents could move freely to overthrow this government.

Their friend, E. E. Patterson, then a Representative from Los Angeles, actually introduced such a measure in the House in June, 1946, while the Sedition trial was still being ballyhooed by the Red press.

So when the California Department, then a Representative board, adopted the resolution the other day many anti-Communist members of that Legion board, however, are pretty wise to the Marxist maneuvers and that—after a steady stream of protest from members—are trying to find out how the resolution was slipped past them.

Goodman, Dorsey Rivalry Ends in Studio Scuffle

Hollywood, Aug. 23 (AP)—Benny Goodman, long known as the King of Swing, apparently was outwitted by Tommy Dorsey. That much seemed certain today.

Goodman was home nursing a sore nose and chin when, Goldwyn publicists said, Trombone Tommy landed the old one-two in a recording session that got hot in more ways than musical.

The story, as the studio spokesmen reconstructed, was that Goodman arrived two hours late for the date yesterday, then aroused Dorsey's ire—by always deeply hidden—by interpolating some hot licks which caused a row. Dorsey reportedly said:

"Look, Benny, I came here at nine with the other boys after working until two. Maybe you can sleep but we'd like to get this over with."

An exchange of phrases led to Dorsey's blows, ringleaders said. Goodman, who apparently landed only verbally, picked himself up off the bandstand and went home. Later, Silphorn Tommy sidestepped questions, denying he struck the clarinetist. Claimed Dorsey:

"There was a little verbal argument. A couple of music tones got upset. Why, I'm a musician. I couldn't punch my way out of a paper bag."

Goodman gave this version: "I was just sitting there playing my clarinet when Tommy walked up and started swinging. I'm mystified about the whole thing."

He denied calling Dorsey any names.

Dorsey figured three years ago in an altercation with Jon Hall, but was acquitted of assault charges brought by the actor in a superior court trial.

Goodman and Dorsey have been rivals in the popular music field since their early Chicago days in the 1920's, but this was the first sharp report between them.

The two musicians, along with jazzmen Louis Armstrong, Charlie Barnet, Lionel Hampton and Mel Powell, were making final recordings for the soundtrack of a picture in which they appear.

New Jersey Man Injured By LeFevre Automobile

William Harger, 510 Shellac Place, West New York, N. J., was injured slightly Friday afternoon when he was hit by an auto operated by Mrs. Sarah DuBois LeFevre, Main street, New Paltz, according to the local police.

Mrs. LeFevre notified the police at 4:35 p. m., according to the report, that she was proceeding south on Broadway near the Central Lunch when the auto she was driving struck the man as he was walking across the street.

The injured man was taken to the Kingston Hospital by Thomas Whelan, of 530 Delaware avenue. He suffered minor injuries to the right leg and a cut over the left eye and was admitted to the hospital for observation, the report said.

Truck Damaged in Ditch

Friday while Welcome Speenburgh, 30, was operating one of the John Carman tractor-trailer trucks south on Route 9-W in Marlborough a car ahead of his vehicle made a right turn. Unable to turn to the left because of north-bound traffic, Speenburgh turned his vehicle to the ditch to avoid striking other cars. The truck was damaged but no one was injured. The vehicle was towed out by one of the Carman wreckers from Prattville, State Police from Highland investigated.

Suffers Minor Cuts

Charles Irvine, 47, of Walden suffered scalp wounds and other minor cuts Friday when his car overturned on Route 208 about two miles south of New Paltz. Irvine was traveling north when he lost control of the car. State Police report. Irvine was treated by Dr. Virgil DeWitt of New Paltz and released in custody by his own physician, Dr. Stevens of Walden.

Will Release Men Sunday

Seoul, Aug. 23 (AP)—The Russians announced today that three American enlisted men taken into custody just inside the Soviet Occupation Zone in North Korea August 12 would be released Sunday. The American intelligence officials at Pusan, Russian occupation headquarters, was informed by a representative of the Soviet command that the Americans would be released at the point where they crossed the border. The three are T/5 Tommy F. Pugsley of Renton, Wash.; P.F.C. John D. Hope of Seattle and P.F.C. Gerald K. Goffen of Port Chester, N. Y.

BILBO: The Stormy Career of 'The Man' from Mississippi

For 30 years Theodore ("The Man") Bilbo has been in and out of trouble and politics in his native Mississippi. He served a term in jail for contempt and spent three years in the state legislature. Once he was indicted for bribery, was once indicted for corruption. Yet he won two terms as governor.

Bilbo was born in a log cabin near Poplarville, Miss., in 1877. Nearly 70 years later he was to face a searching Senate inquiry into the source of funds for his 27-room "dream house," not far distant from his birthplace. Educated in country schools, he worked his way through college and the University of Michigan law school.

He entered politics in 1908 when he was elected to the state senate. From 1912 to 1916 he served as lieutenant-governor and was governor from 1916 to 1920 (above), and again from 1920 to 1922. A licensed Baptist preacher, Bilbo perfected a rough-and-ready rhetoric that tickled Mississippi red necks and made them vote for him.

Early in his career, a Mississippi editor dubbed Bilbo "The Man" in the wake of statewide gossip about his affairs with women. He promptly adopted the title and, typically, did not ignore the rumors. Bilbo once told an audience of women voters, "If these stories about 'The Man' are true, you've got to admit, sisters, he's a man."

Capitol Hill debut for the former governor was a $6000-a-year job clipping newspapers for the Agricultural Adjustment Agency (above). In 1934 he decided to run for the Senate, donned his red campaign necktie, and was elected. To the "red-blooded Anglo Saxons" who elected him, he loudly promised to "out-Huey Huey Long."

Prevented from taking his seat in the 80th Congress, a defeated Bilbo went home to undergo a successful cancer operation. Later a specialist told him he would "live to be 100—unless somebody shoots you." But that was nothing new, for in his 40 years of politics there has always been a lot of "shooting" at the 70-year-old stormy petrel.

Says Labor Strife May Bring Ruin To Film Industry

Los Angeles, Aug. 23 (AP)—Labor strife may bring ruin to Hollywood's film industry, says Rep. Carroll D. Keams (R-Pa.), who for a week has been conducting hearings on the American Federation of Labor's lengthy jurisdictional squabble involving studio workers.

Keams, chairman of a House subcommittee, concluded the session yesterday with the declaration: "I'd hate to see some other country, because of a lack of unity between management and labor here, take away this great industry. It seems really pitiful that anything should be allowed to obstruct its progress."

The congressman after listening to testimony of union leaders and producer executives for a week regarding jurisdictional disputes which at times have kept thousands from working because of quarrels over such matters as which union should do set construction work turned the conflict "much ado about nothing."

He indicated that he would like to accomplish a settlement of the difficulty and end the hearings.

Two Women Injured In Crash on Broadway

Two women were injured slightly in an auto collision late Friday night near the railroad crossing on Broadway, according to the police.

Mrs. John Wilbert Kirk, 49 Argyle road, West Hempstead, N. Y., suffered an injury to the back of her head, and a Mrs. J. Kilgour, 553 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, who was riding in the same auto suffered a shoulder injury, the report said.

The auto driven by John Wilbert Kirk of the Hempstead address, according to the report, was parked near the curb when it was struck by a car driven by Eugene Bradford of Wawarsing who was driving north on Broadway.

Both autos were slightly damaged, according to the police report at 11:30 p. m.

Truck, Car Collide

Keith Tremper, 40, of Rhinebeck, operating a Ford truck collided with the rear of a Plymouth car at the portal in Albanys yesterday afternoon when the Plymouth car, operated by Ruth M. Smith of 37 Oakwood Road, Rochester, stopped when a car ahead of her stopped suddenly. The Plymouth was owned by Peter Boonsky of 186 Albany Road, Rochester. Boonsky suffered minor injuries and contusions. Trooper Ray Dunn investigated. No arrest was made.

Bronx Man Arrested

Joel Adelshtein of 598 Modwood avenue, Bronx, was arrested Friday by State Trooper Dunn at the junction of the Woodstock-Saugerties road and the West Hurley-Woodstock road on a charge of failing to stop at a full stop sign. Adelshtein traveling toward Woodstock, allegedly had a near collision with a car traveling toward Saugerties. Before Justice George Brenden a fine of $10 was imposed.

New Paltz Women Inherit

New York, Aug. 23 (Special)—Grace D. Miller and Evelyn T. Adams of New Paltz, divide the estate of their aunt, the late Mary E. leading from the viaduct into North Front street, was also finished in asphaltic concrete over its former brick pavement, and workmen were engaged this week in preparing Newkirk avenue for similar reconstruction from Hasbrouck avenue to Chamber street.

Waiting for Sewer Project

The area on Broadway from Chestnut street to a point below McEntee street, on which repaving has been delayed pending completion of a sewer project, will be finished later.

The penetration processed pavement was used on First avenue from Moore street to the city line, over the full length of Jansen avenue, the full length of Glen street, Lindegarth avenue from Burgwin street to the city line, over on Becker street and Hill street to Broadway. A small piece of similar pavement was completed recently leading from the stadium grounds to Forsyth Park.

Work is scheduled to start soon on the repaving of Main street from Wall street to Clinton avenue with two courses of asphaltic concrete which will also be laid from Main to Pearl street on Clinton avenue and from that street to Broadway on Albany avenue.

Curbing has been reset on most of the street's repaved with asphaltic concrete, and with the exception of where the pavement was laid over brick, the streets were scarified and reshaped to provide a suitable construction base.

The streets paved with the penetration processed pavement also scarified and shaped. Then four inches of three-inch crushed stone was laid and rolled. This base was then given a covering of liquid asphalt, applied at a temperature of 300 degrees. Another layer of one-inch stone was then laid and a thin application of liquid asphalt was laid on top. This was topped with a layer of thinner stone.

This top layer of stone causes some dust for awhile after it is laid but traffic over the road hardens it gradually until it reaches a state similar to any other hard road. This fact is demonstrated on East Street and North Street where this type of pavement was laid a year ago.

ALLIGERVILLE

Alligerville, Aug. 23—Members of the Alligerville Maple Manor 4-H Club participated in the Ulster County Fair, in Kingston, Wednesday.

The club had a booth which won a blue ribbon. Individual winners were Mary Ann Bowman, five blue ribbons and two red ribbons; Marion Lapp, three blue and two red; Ethel May McKay, two blue; Janet Williams, one red and one white; Patsy Williams, one red.

They showed coolies, aprons, cakes, breads, butter, collections, muffins, rabbits and chickens. The booth, named Food for Fun and Fitness, also had vegetables, cakes and sweets. This finished the children's project and members are now looking forward to reorganizing for another year of activities. Leaders attending the fair were Mrs. John Conner and Mrs. C. Bowman.

Stephan Hero Released

Beverly Hills, Calif., Aug. 23 (AP)—Child stealing charges against concert violinist Stephan Hero, instituted by his father-in-law, pianist Jose Iturbi, have been dismissed and Hero has been released from jail where he had been held since Monday under $15,000 bond.

The complaint had charged Hero, 33, with illegally removing his own children, Theresa, 10, and Maria Antonia, 9, from Iturbi's Beverly Hills home. However, City Judge Charles J. Griffin dismissed the charges at a hearing yesterday, holding that a four-year-old order giving Iturbi custody of the children was voided by the suicide in April, 1946 of Iturbi's daughter, Maria, who was Hero's wife.

Operation Approved

Harrison, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP)—The Westchester county airport here has been approved by the Civil Aeronautics Administration for airline operation after August 26. Operations Superintendent Frank Ward announced today. Ward said that American Airlines and American Overseas Airlines will use the airport as a "provisional" landing field and that all other airlines can use the field on an emergency basis.

Canadian Cop Hunt Bandits Who Took $40,000 From Bank

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 23 (AP)—Canadian police tightened a net around this border city today in their hunt for a pair of jittery bandits who snatched approximately $40,000 from a Royal Bank of Canada branch in a daring daylight raid.

Armed with a sub-machine gun and a pistol, the two staged Windsor's first bank holdup in years during closing hours yesterday, lining 10 employees and 15 customers against a wall while they gathered up all available cash but spared $60,000 in Victory bonds.

Their escape car was found abandoned on the east side of the city a short time after the hold-up, but 10 hours later city, provincial and Canadian mounted police had found no trace of the robbers, both believed to be about 30 years of age.

Road blocks were set up to cut off any escape from the city. Manager Ambrose A. Kinahan told police he thought he recognized one of the unmasked bandits—the man armed with the machine gun—as Ulysses Luzon of Windsor, who fled the Kingston Penitentiary Monday with two other long term prisoners.

Both robbers seemed "nervous," Kinahan related, adding, "the chap who stuck the Tommy gun in my ribs shook so much that I was afraid it might go off from the vibrations."

Assistant Accountant John M. McIntyre reported the first bandit entered the bank just before closing time and dropped a coat from his arm, revealing the sub-machine gun.

"This is a stickup," he announced, threatening McIntyre and several patrons. The other came in a side door brandishing an automatic pistol.

The two ordered employees and patrons "to line up or we'll blow your heads off." They shoved one woman teller roughly as they forced her from her post and warned another woman employee, "don't touch any buttons."

Quickly they emptied cash drawers into a brown bag, passing over the bonds in the bank vault. Then, while one bandit stood guard, the other hurried out and returned with the escape car. The pair fled, scarcely five minutes after the robbers still were completing inventories to determine exactly how much cash had been stolen.

Kinahan said the machine gun bearer wore brown trousers, a beige shirt, a dark brown hat and a sailor collar. The other man wore a dark grey shirt and hat and had a dark complexion and gold in his front teeth, it was reported.

Harkin Will Speak On Field Artillery At Armory Tuesday

Colonel Frank W. Harkin, newly designated commander of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion of the New York National Guard, will be guest speaker Tuesday evening at the meeting of Companies A and B, Kingston units of the State Guard, at the State Armory on Main avenue.

The meeting will start at 8 o'clock. Col. Harkin, former field instructor at Fort Sill, Okla., will talk on all phases of the modern Field Artillery Battalion including firing, communications, supply and cover the part by the field artillery in a combat team.

The meeting is open to all persons who are interested in the New York National Guard.

19 Workers Perish in Blast At Durham Coal Mines

Annfield Plain, Eng., Aug. 23 (AP)—Nineteen Durham coal miners perished in an explosion in the Morrison north mine here today. All the burned and mutilated bodies were brought to the surface.

It was the second mining disaster to hit coal-stricken England within a week. Only five men survived the blast, and they suffered burns and multiple injuries.

The blast occurred shortly after midnight, three fourths of a mile from the bottom of the shaft, in which a night crew of 24 men was working.

Britain's last mine disaster occurred on the night of Aug. 15 when an explosion ripped through the undersea workings of the William pit at Whitehaven, killing 104 men.

Whitehaven is in Cumberland county, in northwestern England. Durham county is just east of Cumberland county.

Britain Announces Plan On Economic Crisis

Washington, Aug. 23 (AP)—Great Britain today planned hopes for solving her economic crisis on greater production at home, fewer imports from abroad and a U.S. agreement that the British may ration the $400,000,000 remaining of last year's $3,750,000,000 loan.

Mrs. Webster Egan was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gorsline of Kingston Sunday. Other guests at the Gorsline home were Mrs. Charles Bell of Lloyd and her guests, Mrs. John J. Markey and children, Marjorie and Douglas, of Boone, Pa.

Makes 'Sensible' Trousers

Chicago, Aug. 23 (AP)—A 50-year-old Chicago tailor yesterday bowed to the heat and raised his hemline. Stanley Tomal designed himself a pair of tropical worsted knee-length pants and strode through the Loop. "Sure, people stop and say, 'look at that guy,'" he said, "but after a minute, when they're through wiping the sweat off their foreheads, I hear them add, 'he's got the right idea at that; gotta hand it to him.'"

Tomal figures it will take another year before his knee-cool campaign takes hold. "You watch," he predicted, "next year the Loop will be full of sensible men."

Plan 75 Millions For Institutions In New Jersey

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 23 (AP)—A $75,000,000 program for development of New Jersey's educational and institutional facilities—to be financed by a two-cent cigarette tax—had the general approval of Governor Driscoll today, but he cautioned that its timing would have to be determined "by adequate study and consideration."

The New Jersey committee for adequate welfare and educational buildings put forth the proposal yesterday, asserting the state must eliminate "dangerous and unhealthy" overcrowding in schools and institutions.

Driscoll said he was pleased a group of "truly distinguished citizens were considering the pressing need" for additional facilities and was also giving consideration to "an appropriate method of financing these improvements. But he added that the timing of the committee's suggestion "remained to be decided in the near future."

The committee expressed hope the question could go to referendum vote next November. Administration sources were reported concerned about offering a bond issue at the same time the question of adoption of a new constitution will be on the ballot.

HIGH FALLS

High Falls, Aug. 23—Miss Marguerite Brown of Atwood, junior high school student chosen by the county to attend Girls' State at Skidmore College in Saratoga, addressed the American League Auxiliary of the Town of Marbletown Post Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Jansen. Mrs. Isaac Graham, president, presided.

Miss Brown presented an interesting account of her experience while at Skidmore and said that the girls learn democracy by actually going through the processes of government even to nominating candidates for public offices, campaigning for the candidates of their choice, voting by real machines and by going to Albany and the state legislature.

Only one girl in 235 has the privilege of such training, it was pointed out.

Mrs. Myrtle Carey of the Kingston unit and county rehabilitation chairman, attended the meeting, and gave valuable suggestions for work which may be undertaken by the unit to ease the path of disabled veterans now in hospitals.

A report of the state convention in Niagara Falls was presented by Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Jansen.

Mrs. Joseph Hoffman, Mrs. Ashton Hart and Mrs. John Connors were appointed to serve on the nominating committee.

It also was announced during the meeting that a son had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Williams, Sr., a charter member. Mrs. Joseph Greenburg was reported ill. Following the session, refreshments were served.

The Auxiliary will hold a dance in the High Falls Firehall, Thursday, August 28, with music by the "Jump Jumpers." There will be both round and square dancing. The public is invited.

Kurtz Fined $15

Clarence Kurtz, 18, of Shandaken was fined $15 on a reckless driving charge before Justice of the Peace Fred Decker of Albanys Thursday. State Trooper Ray Dunn reported Kurtz, headed west on Route 28 struck the gas pumps at the John Brown garage doing damage to two pumps and also turning over oil tanks in front of the place. The accident happened about 1:30 o'clock in the morning.

OFFICE CAT

By Junius

A sophisticated-looking gentleman stopped his car and watched with amusement a little old man scorching sitting on the bank of a little pond with a fishing pole in his hands.

Motorist—"What are you fishing for, pop?"

Fisherman—"Whales."

Motorist—"Don't tell me there are whales in that pond?"

Fisherman—"Nope, but there ain't nothing else either. Might as well fish for whales."

Our highways are just not wide enough for speeders and reckless drivers. And never will be.

There was an accident and many people had gathered about the wrecked car, when some one drove up and cried to the man that was lying beneath. "Say Jim, did you have an accident?"

"Naw," came from beneath the car, "the kids have always wanted to see the works, so I turned the darned thing over for them."

Ted Seddon Wins 12th, 4-1; Hofbrau Eliminates Chez Emile

Antonetz's Bat, Kerr's Catch Stop Nazareth

Big Rudy Antonetz and Brian Kerr, a couple of young men who don't often crash the spotlight collaborated with Lanky Ted Seddon to turn back the powerful Nazareth Tigers, 4 to 1, in a brilliant pitching duel between Seddon and Nazareth's Jerry Kleinsmith last night at municipal stadium.

Since no club in the North Atlantic League has learned the secret of beating Carbondale once in a while, the Dodger lead remained at 8½ games. Carbondale downed the last place Nyack Rocklands, 6 to 4.

Kleinsmith Fans 15
Seddon notched his 12th victory against two defeats with a masterly three-hit job that had to be every bit as good as it was. Kleinsmith gave him a terrific argument, yielding only six hits and striking out 13 batters, a seasonal high for a visiting pitcher at the stadium. Had he been able to get by Antonetz, the teams might have battled endlessly without end.

Rudy's big bat barked three times running after he drew a pass the first time up. He emboldened his "3 for 3" with a triple and two singles and drove in three of the four Kingston markers. Nazareth spotted Seddon's bid for a third shutout in a bewildering set of circumstances in the ninth. After the Tigers had scored once and the tying run was at the plate, Kerr raced into deep left center for a spectacular one-handed catch of Seddon's booming bid for a triple to end the contest.

Milton Nullifies Gem
Klitos made a gorgeous back-hand stab of Benanetti's bid for a single over second but made the mistake of throwing off balance and the ball sailed past first base. Benanetti pulled up at second and languished while Klitos tossed out Halvonik. Komiserak, a dangerous hitter who had been bogged in the entire series, shot a Texas Leaguer to center field and Benanetti came across the platter with the spoiler. Gutshall rapped a grounder back at Seddon who threw wild into center field trying for a force at second putting two men on. Rickard shot a line drive at Williams for the second out and the game ended on the next play when Kerr pulled one of the fielding gems of the season on Allswede.

Reservations Heavy for Barney Ross Appearance

Kleinsmith pitched three hitless innings and racked up six strikeouts before the Dodgers got to him for a pair in the fourth. A walk by Kowalski, Williams' single and an outfield error and fielder's choice put two men on with two outs and set the stage for Antonetz's first hit—a clothes-line single to left—scoring Williams and Rosa. Kerr's walk, steal and Kowalski's single to center accounted for the third run and with two outs in the eighth, Antonetz tripled to left scoring Rosa who had singled and stolen second. Rudy's hit was a line drive to left that skipped over Gutshall's head.

The Nazareth hurler struck out every batter except Antonetz. He got Bobby Newburgh three times while Kerr, Orlamen and Seddon were double victims.

The early part of the contest was enlivened by frequent rambles between members of both clubs and Umpire Carpenter, who had his first bad night of the season.

Peekskill in Last Stand

The turbulent Peekskill Highlanders, defending champions in the North Atlantic League, are in Kingston for their final three-game set of the season tonight and Sunday night.

A single engagement is scheduled at 8 o'clock tonight, with a doubleheader Sunday, first game at 6:30 p. m.

Manager Al Gardella's swagging troupe is the most colorful outfit to visit the stadium and should attract large crowds and provide a field day for the Dodger rooting section and jockeys in the third base bleachers.

Manager George Pratt is ready to flash three aces at the invaders—"Dangerous Dan" Bennett, Alton Gilbert and Johnny Zigmund.

End of a Pitching Saga:

His two defeats in the Shaughnessy playoffs notwithstanding, Billy Windburn has established himself securely among the all-time pitching greats in City League history. There is nothing on the record books that even remotely approaches the achievements of the good looking, free wheeling Jones Dairy right hander.

In some quarters you get the argument that Windburn in compiling his phenomenal record of 17 straight victories during the past two seasons was pitching against opposition that was decidedly inferior to the City League standard of the old Morgan Repealers, Forster, Kyanize, Independents, Knights of Columbus, Postmills and other great squads of the past. Granted that there is some merit to this argument, leave us not jump on the bandwagon of the d-senters. We're tempted to brush off the old adage that seventeen in a row is plenty of pitching even if it were accomplished in the Dairyman's League. Seems that we have brushed it off.

Windburn's 1947 record during the regular City League schedule of nine games, reveals 11 starts (two games ended in ties) in which he pitched every inning. Jones Dairy didn't have a relief pitcher. Windburn worked 11 complete games for 68 innings and permitted 61 hits. Not a sign of greatness, you say. But let's analyze a bit further. In 68 innings, he struck out 88 batters. Definitely above par and issued only 18 walks. Such control is seldom found in City League pitchers. Among other things, Windburn pitched a 1-hitter against the West Shore on June 8. He stopped Morgan's 3-0, on two hits, and unfurled three hitters against Hofbrau and Staubles. The tipoff on the City League fans' appreciation of Windburn's pitching talents came in the second playoff game between Jones Dairy and Morgan's, when Bill walked off the field a beaten, but respected pitcher, amid one of the greatest ovations ever accorded a City League hurler.

Of Poughkeepsie Power:

Poughkeepsie is sending six young baseball stars to the K.A.A. "junior classic" Tuesday night and each has a brilliant record. Bill Paroli, a husky left-handed hitting outfielder, was one of the big reasons why Sam Kalloch's team made a show of Hudson Valley scholastic competition. He clouted the ball at a .407 clip, with 22 basehits and 24 runs. But Bill, a football hero in the autumn, is strictly a power hitter and can powder the ball with the best in the high school ranks. He wacked five homers.

Glenn MacClelland, a centerfielder, hit .361, bats from the left side and is a fine defensive player. Gene Weglinski, only 16 years old, is expected to blossom into one of the best players ever produced at P.H.S. A quite soft-spoken youth, Weglinski hit .357, made 15 hits and scored 16 runs. He played with the Poughkeepsie American Legion this summer and has two more years of high school.

A Great High School Pitcher:

Eddie Williams, the ace hurler for the Blue, enjoyed an enviable record during his tour of duty. A Hank Neighbors type Williams pitches methodically but brilliantly and can play any place on the diamond. Known as "Steady Eddie," he developed into one of the best Poughkeepsie pitchers in recent years. He won, 8 straight, struck out 89 batters and had a string of 40 consecutive scoreless innings. He tossed a no-hitter against Wappingers Falls.

Converted from a shortstop into a hurler this year, Eddie's record is even more surprising. Not only was his hurling outstanding but he clouted the ball for .302. Williams graduated from P.H.S. in June and is reported headed for Syracuse University, alma mater of an illustrious Blue alumnus, Dick Whitwell. He received a scholarship—and not for athletics—although the Orange will be glad to see him. He was one of the top students in his class.

Some Shucks of a Catcher

Carl "Jake" Charter, a great young catcher, paced the Poughkeepsie High-School powerhouse with an average of .477. The husky catcher cracked 21 hits for 47 official at bats and scored 47 runs. The year-old power hitter will be back for another season. Coach Sam Kalloch rates him "one of the most natural hitters that I've seen during my coaching career. A 190-average bowler in his spare time, too.

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: He never saw a baseball team as "down" as the Jones Dairy gang in that 10-2 debacle against Morgan's. Cheer up, boys, it can't be that bad.

Gun Club To Be Host

The Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club will start a series of weekly trap and skeet shooting events Sunday at the club grounds in Lake Katrine. The shooting starts at 1:30.

Leslie Hotaling, secretary of the club, reports that two new shooting traps and a skeet field are now in operation. Prizes will be awarded for the best scores in both skeet and trap shooting.

Hotaling emphasized that the shooting is open to everyone, members and non-members. Guns also are provided and those who do not own one and would like to compete. Several excellent instructors also are available to teach beginners. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend the opening meet.

New York—Charles Fumari, 14½, Irvington, N. J., knocked out Joe DiMartino, 14½, Bridgeport, Conn., 4.

Chestertown Makes Track Record as Accident Happens

Westbury, N. Y., Aug. 23 (AP)—Another new harness racing record was on the books today, and the 26,896 fans who saw it established by the famed Chestertown still shuddered as they recalled the near-catastrophe that marred the running of the Roosevelt Raceway feature.

A spectacular pileup of seven horses in the bulky field of 15 competing in the $40,150 Roosevelt two-mile trot last night stunned the record crowd and sent three of the country's leading reinsmen to the hospital.

Chestertown managed to lead half of the field past the tangle of rearing horses and wrecked sulks at the first turn and emerged the winner in 4:19.2, eclipsing the world mark of 4:23 for a half-mile track set by Peter Manning in 1925.

As far as could be determined, none of the horses was injured seriously.

Associated Press Sports Writer

That glossy pennant picture, as painted only the other day by Eddie Dyer, master manipulator of the St. Louis Cardinals, appeared today to have become somewhat blurred.

Despite Dyer's assertion following St. Louis' recent series with the Dodgers, that it would be a fight right down to the wire "with the Cards winning it," it was doubtful whether the unpredictable Redbirds have ever been worse off than at this moment.

Beaten for the second time in three games by the lowly Phillies in Philadelphia last night, the Cards skidded to six full games behind the front running Brooklyn team in the hectic National League race. Although they have trailed by more games on other occasions, they now have so little time to make up the deficit.

With only three more cracks left at the Dodgers, the Cards have but 35 more games left to play, to 33 for the Brooks.

Brooks Fatten Up

The Brooks, unlike the Cards, continued to fatten up on the second division outfits, eking out a 6-5 victory in 12 hard-fought innings at Ebbets Field. A muff of a thrown ball by Catcher Ray Lammie enabled Dixie Walker of the Dodgers to score the winning run.

A triple by Walker had highlighted a two-run eighth inning rally which gave the Dodgers a 5-3 advantage but the Reds tied the score in the ninth on two singles, an error and a double by Bobby Adams.

A ninth inning home run by Al Lakeman with one on won for the Phillies 4-2. The four-base blow was a climax to a pitching duel between Dutch Leonard of the Phils and Harry (The Cat) Brecheen of the Cards. There was one out when Lakeman, a 143 out of 144 hitter in for the injured first baseman Howie Schultz, cracked the ball into the left field seats.

Feller Wins 15th
Bob Feller pitched his 15th victory of the season as the Cleveland Indians swept a double header from the American League leading New York Yankees 4-3 and 6-0 before 52,105 fans at Municipal Stadium. Feller allowed only four hits in winning the afternoon game, making three wild pitches, walking seven and striking out five. His own error in the seventh led to the lone Yankee run.

Ted Williams collected six hits in seven times at bat as the Boston Red Sox divided a double header with the White Sox in Chicago. Williams won two victories, three times in the first game and four for four in the second which was won by Boston 6-3. The White Sox, behind Ed Lopat, won the opener 7-2. The Red Sox now trail the Yankees by 12 games.

After appearing in 37 games in relief roles for the Chicago Cubs, Emil Kuhn held the Boston Braves to four hits for a 2-0 victory while making his first 1947 start. The defeat dropped the Braves to seven and a half games back of Brooklyn.

The New York Giants increased their season home run output to 166 when Will Marshall, Walker Cooper and Mickey Wittek slammed four big bangers to lead them to an 8-7 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates at the Polo Grounds.

After absorbing a double defeat at the hands of Washington Thursday, the Detroit Tigers retaliated by winning two from the Senators in Detroit 7-6 and 2-0. A three-run double by Walt Judd in the eighth inning enabled the Browns to come from behind and defeat the fast traveling Philadelphia Athletics 7 to 5 in a night game at Philadelphia.

St. Joseph's Win 5-4; Snap St. Peter Streak

St. Joseph's softball squad shattered St. Peter's bid for an undefeated season this week, defeating the previously unsundered team 5-4, at Block Park, in an eight inning contest.

"Link" Crosby scored the winning run when he singled and completed the circuit on a sacrifice, a wild pitch and error.

Ed Netter again paced the winners, slamming a homer and single. "Snitz" Houghtaling was the winning hurler, while Walt Elgert took the loss.

Score by innings:
St. Peter's 020 010 10-5
St. Joseph's 200 001 11-5

Bigler and Larkin; Houghtaling and Ruzzo.

Standings Unchanged in Colonial League

Standings in the Colonial Baseball League remained relatively unchanged after last night's games with the league leading Waterbury Timers holding their edge by defeating the Port Chester Clippers 4-3 and the tallied New London Raiders clinging to their cellar position by bowing to fourth place Bridgeport 6-4.

In the other game played last night the Poughkeepsie Giants beat the Stamford Bombers 5-1 behind the seven-hit pitching of Larry Cauvel, young southpaw who shut out the Bombers in his previous start.

Ex-Ring Champion, Marine Hero, Has Magnetic Appeal

Although the "Carnival of Champions" is topheavy with ranking amateur boxers for Wednesday night, August 27, the presence of Barney Ross as guest referee is expected to have magnetic boxoffice appeal for the B'nai B'rith outdoor show at 9 p. m. in the Kingston Municipal Stadium.

Reservations for outside seats are pouring in from all sections of the Hudson valley, Dr. Murray Greene, ticket chairman reports, and it is his opinion that those who are placing orders are anxious to see the ex-champion who covered himself with glory as a U. S. Marine.

Attractive Card
Two of the headline bouts are: Tony Barone, Schenectady welterweight who fought his way to the finals in the national A. U. tournament at Boston vs. Jimmy Beau, Poughkeepsie, former North Carolina champion.

Paul Simpson, Cleveland, national light-heavyweight champion vs. Phil Alston, Jersey City, who claims victories over Johnny Stevens and Coley Wallace, New York boxers. Simpson had plenty of trouble in beating.

Supporting scraps are on a par with the two mentioned, and indications are that there will be plenty of action in every one of the seven five-rounders arranged for presentation on the outdoor card.

Fought Best in Ring
Ross, who simultaneously held the lightweight, junior welterweight and welterweight titles, fought as courageously for Uncle Sam as he did in the ring against such capable foes as Henry Armstrong, Tony Canzoneri and Jimmy McLarnin.

The story of Barney Ross on Guadalcanal sparkles brilliantly in the history of World War 2. He is credited with firing more than 300 rounds of ammunition against the Japs in one attack, and killed 10 Nips as he guarded three wounded companions. Barney was really in the thick of it, and according to one correspondent had the experience of feeling 30 bullets bound off his helmet and back.

Now 38, Ross has a personnel job in a Newburgh shipyard, and is devoting his spare time to personal appearances at boxing shows, receiving the cheers of fans who once saw him as a champion of the sport and younger boxing enthusiasts who know his ring accomplishments through sports writers for newspapers and magazines.

Barney Ross is glad to be back in the sports picture, after his shrapnel wounds, malaria, and shock, and probably will get a plenty of action in every one of the seven five-rounders arranged for presentation on the outdoor card.

Rico Monte Will Renew Feud With Gallorette Today

Saratoga Springs, Aug. 23 (AP)—Arnold Hanger's Rico Monte and W. L. Brann's Gallorette, who finished one, two in the photo finish of the recent Whitney with Styria trailing them home, were to renew their rivalry today in the $30,000-added Saratoga handicap.

As in the Whitney, only three were carded to go, with Mrs. Dodge Sloan's Boss the outsider in the mile and a quarter test. In the Whitney, Rico Monte and Gallorette carried equal weights, but today the South American had to spot Gallorette two pounds.

The $10,000 added six furlong Grand Union Hotel Stakes also was on the program, the nine entrants being headed by Ben Whitaker's My Request and Greentree's Star Bout.

STONE RIDGE

Stone Ridge, Aug. 22—The Rev. and Mrs. Harold Hoffman and son Robert, of Detroit, Mich., visited with friends in the village this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Berge of Brooklyn spent a few days this week with Mrs. Berge's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gutorm Nilsson.

Mrs. E. C. Chadbourne and Miss E. LaMott are vacationing at Cape Cod.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hasbrouck, of Cooperstown August 8. The baby is named Laurence Ross. Mrs. Hasbrouck is the former Miss Mary Bloom of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Odgen have returned to their home in Hewlett, L. I., after spending some time with Mrs. Odgen's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green.

A flower show sponsored by the Stone Ridge Grange will be held August 28 at the Grange Hall. Entries will be accepted in the morning.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAY BOYLE

New York (AP)—A heat wave is only a warm ripple in Manhattan until the public parks become so crowded the pigeons start stepping on the people.

Then you know it's really hot. If you were an egg under your armpit in Tucson, Ariz., or Dodge City, Kan., on a torrid day, it would probably end up hard-boiled by nightfall.

Do the same thing in New York and the egg would merely become posched. Try it in London—if you could find an egg—and it probably wouldn't hatch all summer long.

Summer in England is usually the third Wednesday in July.

A thermometer is a pretty good index to the severity of a heat wave in most sections of America. Here it is not so good.

A heat wave in New York is compounded of temperature, humidity and humanity. It doesn't last as long as it does in Timbuktu, Key West and other cities outside the National League, but while it endures the sun bears down with malignant majesty.

On days when the air is moisture-laden and the thermometer climbs above 90, New Yorkers begin to pant. If the temperature goes to 95 or higher, the city becomes a concrete and steel hell of dripping misery.

The subways are a cool refuge the first day. Then they steam up, too, and stepping into them is like falling into a soggy hot blanket.

The only way to escape the heat and remain in town is to go into an air-conditioned bar or movie. The cliff dwellers of this Babylon-on-the-Hudson have no cool base-
